REGIMENTAL DINNER-BUFFALO, NY

By John Burke

The Tenth 15th Infantry Regimental Dinner in conjunction with the Society of the Third Infantry Division Reunion was held September 13, 2002 at Buffalo, NY. A total of 205 attended. There were 159 Can Do Dragons and quests. In addition there were: 39 from various Field Artillery units who had supported the 15th Infantry Regiment in past campaigns; one from the 7th Infantry Regiment with 3 guests; and 3 from the Belgian Battalion. The Can Do Dragons present represented WWII, Korean War, Cold War, Vietnam, Gulf War, and the current Ready Forces.

Due to illness of the Association President, Leonard Lassar, the Past President, John Burke, acted as the evening's master of ceremonies (MC). The evening began with Posting of the Colors performed by a detachment from the 3rd Battalion from Fort Stewart, GA. The soldiers, led by 1st Sergeant Jeff Moser, performed in the traditional Can Do manner. After the posting of the colors the entire assemblage pledged allegiance to the flag of the US. The Association Chaplain, Charles Trout, delivered the Invocation at the commencement of the dinner as well as the Benediction at the conclusion.

Program events included recognition of several distinguished members who have contributed to the history of the Regiment as well as to the growth of the Association. These included four Association Founding Members: Maurice Kendall, Edward Dojutrek, Michael Halik, and Whitney Mullen. Recognition was made of those individuals named by the active Army as Distinguished Members of the Regiment including Clayton Craig, Robert Hawkins, Maurice Kendall, Whitney Mullen, Jerry Sapiro, and John Shirley. Chaplain Charles Trout was also recognized for recently being inducted into the Infantry Officer Candidate School Hall of Fame at Fort Benning, GA.

Special recognition was made of two contingents from overseas. One was a group of three Belgian veterans who had served with the Belgian Battalion as part of the United Nations Forces in the Korean War. The other group was particularly unique. Julian Mitchell, a 7th Infantry Regiment veteran of the Korean War, had as guests three young men from France. These young men are part of a Rock of the Marne Memorial and Re-enactment Organization. The organization takes part in numerous ceremonies through out Europe commemorating the actions of the Third Infantry Division. They were dressed in authentic WWII uniforms.

John Burke presented a summary of the activities of the two active battalions since the last Regimental Dinner and their current situation. Both active battalions are currently engaged in intensified training, with the 1st Battalion in Kuwait and the 3rd Battalion gearing up for deployment to Kuwait next month.

The featured speaker for the evening was Richard G. Stillwell, Jr. Richard's father commanded the Regiment in Korea from November 1952 to May 1953. The theme of Richard's address was what he believed his father would have had to say regarding traditions and service to unit if he were still living and had the opportunity to address the Association. All in attendance were inspired by Richard's comments.

Henry Burke, acting on behalf of Leonard Lassar, presented a President's Appreciation Plaque to Lloyd D. Whitmer for the great work he has performed as Treasurer for the Association during the past Year.

Ed Dojutrek, Association Vice President, presented remarks on behalf of Leonard Lassar and also vowed to assume responsibilities of the ailing President.

Richard Guimond, Assistant Treasurer, conducted the annual Raffle Drawing. Winners awards were for $300, $200 and three $100 prizes. The winners are shown in another section of this edition of The Dragon.

Prior to the retirement of the colors and the benediction, Mrs. Pennie Burke thrilled the assemblage with the singing of "I'm Proud To Be An American". She is truly a Can Do Dragon.

An announcement was made that the 1st Battalion was preparing to host the 2003 Can Do Rendezvous in early April and that the next Regimental Dinner with the Society Of the Third Infantry Division would be in St. Louis, September 2003. This concluded the evening.

Chaplains Corner

By LTC Chuck Trout, Sr.

As we begin to prepare for the upcoming Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays, we should take time and thank the Dear Lord for the many people in our lives that supported us with their love and loyalty as we served our country. Allow me to quote from a page of a diary, written to Tom, a teen-age soldier who served in Korea with the Third Infantry Division.

Dear Tom, I remember our first date. You told me we were going to see a live performance of the stage show Oklahoma. You said you would pick me up at 6:30 and that I had to be ready on time because they closed the doors to the theatre when the performance began. I was not ready when you arrived to pick me up, we were late, and could not enter until the half-time intermission. I thought you would say, "Never again, that's it." BUT YOU DIDN'T!

Then when you got your first car, I bugged you to death to drive it down the lane. You finally gave in and I hit a fence causing eight hundred dollars damage to your car. I thought for sure you would say, "Good-bye, good riddance." BUT YOU DIDN'T!

Then the evening of our high school prom. You asked me not to bring that open soda into your father's car. I did anyway, spilling the soda all over your rented tux and the front seat of your father's car. I waited for your to scream and finally tell me to get lost. BUT YOU DIDN'T!

Now as I set at home waiting for you to return from Korea, I realize just how much you really mean to me. I planned as soon as you came home from Korea, I was going to run to meet you, to hold you and to tell you how much I love you, BUT YOU DIDN'T!

Don't let that happen to you. Tell that special loved one today just how much you love them. Don't wait until it is too late. Also remember that God loves you and if he had a refrigerator, your picture would be on it.

I am looking for a war buddy on behalf of my grandpa, Jack Indelicato. My grandpa served in WWII in Company E. He has many fond memories of serving with a man named Henry Thorn. He lost contact with Thorn after they were discharged together (from a Hospital in Illinois.) I am looking for Henry Thorn himself, or any family members. I am told Thorn was originally from Ft. Wayne Indiana. If it helps, I know they were both discharged on Jan. 19, 1945. Thank you.

Soldier

I was that which others did not want to be.
I went where others feared to go, and did what others failed to do.
I asked nothing from those who gave nothing, and reluctantly accepted the thought of eternal loneliness...should I fall.
I have seen the face of terror; felt the stinging cold of fear; and enjoyed the sweet taste of a moments love.
I have cried, pained, and hoped...but most of all, I have lived times others would say were best forgotten.
At least someday I will be able to say that I was proud of what I was...a soldier.

Regimental History during World War II

By Tim Stoy

Continuing the Regimental history, we last saw the Regiment withdrawn from China in March 1938 and stationed at Ft. Lewis, Washington.

The entire Regiment, after training for almost two years with the 3d Infantry Division embarked for North Africa as part of Operation Torch, landing at Fedala on the coast of Morocco on 8 November 1942. It continued across North Africa through Oran, Algiers, and Bone, Algeria and Bizerte, Tunisia. Having cleared Africa of Axis forces, the Regiment participated in its second amphibious assault, landing at Licata, Sicily on 10 July 1943 and driving on first to Palermo and then to Messina. Success in Sicily was followed by the Regiment's landing at Salerno in September 1943. With the Fifth Army stalled on its drive against Rome, the 15th Regiment with the rest of the 3d Infantry Division, made its third amphibious assault on 22 January 1944, this time at Anzio. The Regiment followed this tough combat with an advance and occupation of Rome. There it rested and recuperated for the coming invasion of France.

While the main effort of Allied forces began on 6 June 1944 with the landings on the Normandy beaches, Operation Anvil was launched as a supporting effort in Southern France with the Regiment making its fourth amphibious assault of the war as part of the 3d Infantry Division in the area of San Tropez on 15 August 1944. Tough combat against the German 19th Army through the Vosges Mountains brought the Regiment to the Colmar pocket in Alsace by the winter. After tough fighting in January 1945 it cleared the Colmar pocket. In March 1945 the Regiment crossed the Rhine and fought through southern Germany. Its path took it through Bamberg, Nuernberg, Augsburg and Munich. On 8 May 1945, the day the war ended, the Regiment was in Berchtesgaden.

As part of the occupation forces, the Regiment was stationed in Northern Bavaria. The First Battalion was stationed at Wildflecken with D Company at Elsenfeld. The entire Second Battalion was in Hammelburg and the 3d Battalion Headquarters in Mellrichstadt. Regimental Headquarters were in Schweinfurt. Service Company of the Regiment was in Wuerzburg, Cannon Company was in Maroldsweisach, L and M Companies in Koenigshofen, K Company in Ostheim, and I Company in Fladungen. The Regiment remained in Germany until September 1946.

The 3d Infantry Division was drawn down in Europe in 1946. In September of that year, the Division colors with those of all its sub-elements were sent to Camp Campbell, Kentucky, arriving on the 8th. There, the 5th Infantry Division was reflagged to the 3d Infantry Division. The 15th Infantry was part of that reflagging. In December 1948 it moved to Fort Benning, Georgia. In January 1949 the Regiment was ordered to fill the Third Battalion with black soldiers.

In the next issue, the Korean War.

I would like any information regarding my father who served in Co B during WWII. His name was PFC Robert E Jordan and when he left the States he was with the first landings of his unit in 1942 and served until the end of the war. He was at Tunisia, Anzio beachhead, North Africa, Morocco, wounded in France, and finally his last days of duty were in Germany. He was drafted at the age of 26; Dec. 5, 1941 so he was older than the usual young soldiers. He died in 1995 so I am trying to piece some things together and I have his discharge and other things he collected during the war. He never talked much about the war but I have some of his mail he sent home to family when he was there. It would be interesting to know if anyone who knew him could contact me. He served with Audie Murphy, too. He did tell us he was the company barber if that helps and he still cut his own hair up until he died.

I am looking for information on my Great Uncle Corporal Emden "Ben" Smith. Was stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington until being shipped to South Africa. He was killed November 8, 1943 and is buried in the Sicily Rome American Cemetery in Nettuno, Italy. He was awarded the Silver star and a purple heart. Family history tells a story of him capturing several German Soldiers and of being almost fearless as most of the people that served in WW II were. My Grandmother, Esther Ahern at one time (1943/1944) had contact with one of his buddies that was there when he died. The buddy found it hard to write my Grandmother about her favorite brother's death. Any and all information is welcome. Thank you for your time and efforts, hope the name rings a bell and someone has information.

1st Battalion SITREP
by LTC John W. Charlton

Hello to all the great Can-Do alumni out there. I'm coming up on my fourth month in command here in the desert and the experience has been great. I have one company of armor attached from 1-64 Armor and a company of combat engineers attached from 317th Engineer Battalion. A and B CO, 1-15 Infantry are attached to my task force and C CO, 1-15 Infantry is attached to 2-69 Armor. These are the habitual attachments that we would have in combat. We train with them so we are better prepared to fight as a combined arms task force.

We have done more maneuver, live-fire, and combined arms training in five months than most battalions do in 2 years. We started off with platoon force-on-force training, and then progressed into company and even battalion force-on-force training. These mock battles pitted the Dragons against other US units in the 3rd Brigade Combat Team. Needless to say the battles were intense...after all, bragging rights were at stake. You'll be proud to know that the Dragons came out on top every fight and are especially known for our ability to breach and assault enemy defensive positions.

We have also done numerous live-fire exercises. There is just no training substitute for shooting live ammunition. This live-fire training progressed from company all the way up to brigade level and included artillery, mortars, attack helicopters, engineer demolitions, Bradley Fighting Vehicles, and Abrams Tanks. Most important of all, the live fire training included the awesome power of dismounted infantry soldiers fighting to clear enemy trench lines and bunkers.

Although we are well into our fifth month in the desert, we are by no means through training. We recently concluded the Expert Infantryman's Badge Training where we awarded 48 Dragons with the EIB...the highest number in the Brigade Combat Team. We are now going back to some basics with individual weapons training, squad and platoon live fire exercises, a mortar platoon evaluation, scout training, sniper training, and urban combat training. It never stops for the Dragon battalion.

We will be joined by our sister battalion, 3-15 Infantry, here in the desert this month. It will be great to get the whole regiment together in one place. I can think of no better unit to have on our flank than the mighty Dragons of 3-15 Infantry!

Speaking of Regimental reunions, 1st Battalion will be hosting the annual 15th Infantry Regimental Rendezvous 16-17 April 2003 in Fort Benning Georgia. As you know, we had to cancel last year's Rendezvous because of our deployment to Kuwait. We are still early in the planning stages for the 2003 Rendezvous but I want to get the word out early so all the Regimental alumni can start planning to attend. If all goes well, we will have both battalions back in Georgia and have good attendance.

As you all know, this is a very uncertain time for our military and especially this battalion. We don't know if we will be coming home soon or attacking the enemy in combat. I ask you all to keep the soldiers of our Regiment in your prayers. One thing is for sure: if our Commander in Chief orders us to attack, we will be ready. CAN DO!
